

Connecting with culture, caring for country through tourism in Western Australia's national parks

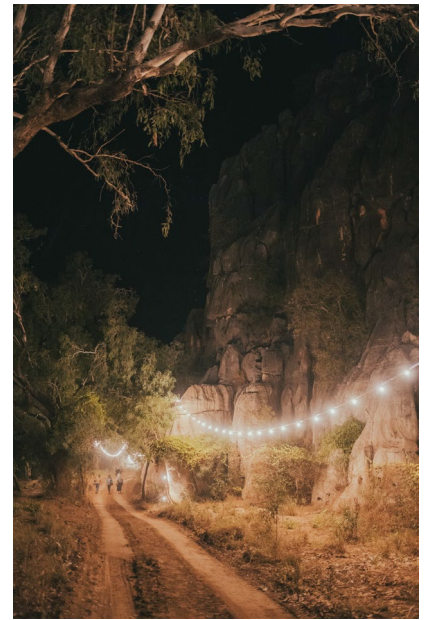

Rhonda Murphy (Department of Biodiversity, Conservation and Attractions), Colleen Drage (Kurlaji Wangga), Hazel Walgar (Baiyungu Dreaming), and Lesley Ugle (Harvey Aboriginal Corporation)

Department of Biodiversity, Conservation and Attractions (DBCA)

Colleen Drage- Kurlaji Wangga

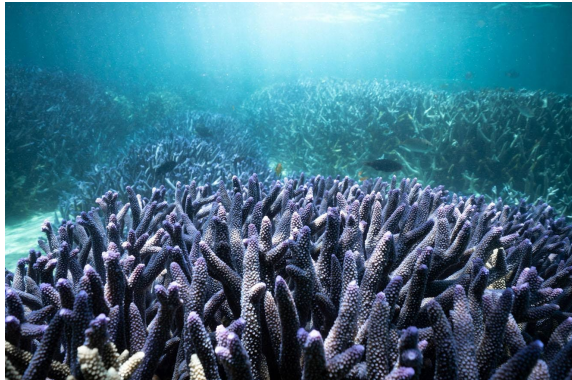

Hazel Walgar

BAIYUNGU
DREAMING

Lesley Ugle- Harvey Aboriginal Corporation

“Our job is to look after country and cultural tourism allows us to be on country to do this”- Darren Capewell, Wula Gura Nyinda Eco Cultural Adventures.

“Tourism empowers our people, revitalizes our culture, and keeps country healthy for our future generations”- Joe Ross, Bunuba Traditional Owner

