

WULA GURA
NYINDA

ECO
CULTURAL
ADVENTURES

SHARK BAY | WORLD HERITAGE AREA

On Country Youth Leadership Camps

Presented by Mira Vankova & Marhleigh Nugent

ShootingStars

Miss Marhleigh Nugent

ECO
CULTURAL
ADVENTURES
SHARK BAY | WORLD HERITAGE AREA

Team Wula Gura Nyinda

Capes & Mira

Wula Gura Nyinda - “Come This Way You”

- Established in 2004 in Monkey Mia by Darren “Capes” Capewell
- Located in Shark Bay World Heritage Area - Gutharraguda meaning “Two Waters” – home to Malgana and Nhandu People
- Family owned and operated business
- We offer Cultural Adventures – 4wd tours, guided kayak tours, camping trips, corporate programs.

Main Goal is to inspire, support and empower young people to become future

leaders in our communities.

Youth Leadership Camps

How we do it?

Nature is our Classroom

Core Principles

1. Leadership
2. Teamwork
3. Communication
4. Safety
5. Respect

1. Leadership

Hands On

ECO
CULTURAL
ADVENTURES
SHARK BAY | WORLD HERITAGE AREA

Active Participation

2. Teamwork

Helping Each other

Working Together

ECO
CULTURAL
ADVENTURES
SHARK BAY | WORLD HERITAGE AREA

3. Communication

Communication is the Key

4. Safety

Cultural Safety

Exclusive Location

ECO
CULTURAL
ADVENTURES
SHARK BAY | WORLD HERITAGE AREA

Cooking on Fire

Safety Equipment

5. Respect

Beach Clean Ups

Caring for Country Projects

Key Strategies

- Experienced and trained staff
- Cultural awareness
- Focus on school curriculum outcomes
- Personal service with hands-on approach
- Safe location
- Understanding local weather conditions
- Flexible itineraries & programs
- Organic & nature-based activities
- Strong partnerships
- Mentoring & future career pathways

Mentoring and Future Career Pathways

ECO
CULTURAL
ADVENTURES
SHARK BAY | WORLD HERITAGE AREA

WULA GURA
NYINDA

ECO
CULTURAL
ADVENTURES

SHARK BAY | WORLD HERITAGE AREA

Youth leadership opportunities allow youth to grow in a positive environment that promotes personal growth.

Thank you.